Nathan Griner has an eclectic style fusing jazz, folk, blues, and pop together. Mainly focusing on acoustic guitar and vocal, Nathan has a very classy sound for any environment, and has something for everyone. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Folky Pop Details: Nathan Griner has lived in MN his entire career listening to all kinds of music throughout his life, ranging from rock to classical, blues and bluegrass. Being influenced to these styles of music has helped shape and construct the majority of Nathan's works. Landing a regular performance once a week at a small coffee shop in Burnsville MN, Nathan started his performance career in many similar venues. In the beginning of Spring Nathan released his first Album, Broken Window, featuring Nathan Griner and a good friend Greg Sylvester, on Piano. This debut release forged him into larger venue performances, immensely furthering his career in opening venues such as: The Marjorie McNeely Conservatory at Como Park, corporate events, business parties, the Convention Center, The Fine line Music Cafe, National gatherings, and many private parties. Nathan Griner is currently focusing on completing his degree at Music Tech College.
