An eclectic combination of original songs, fully produced using a variety of instruments and styles. You'll hear jazzy pop songs, contemporary folk tunes, adult-contemporary style ballads, and more, all seamlessly connected by Renee's soulful vocals. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: "Comparisons to Joan Baez are obvious and accurate, but beyond how similar they are in their ability to write a great song (Baez rarely pens her own songs) and their vocal maturity, any other association would just be lazy. Deep Like A River has all the styling that Patty Griffin has made an entire career from, an acoustic ballad that does no wrong except come to an end. If tomorrow's newest songstress has a face today, it's that of Renee French." Derek Blackmon, Indie-Music.com "Renee has a fresh way of combining taste, intelligent lyrics and natural singing ability into a style all her own that takes her out of the 'sensitive, singer-songwriter' world and puts her in a place all her own." Van Wilks, vanwilks.com "Renee is a wonderful voice for her songs. She gets inside them and makes you feel them." Pat Pattison, Berklee College of Music Born and raised in a small Texas town near Houston, Renee French is an award winning Austin-based songwriter, voice coach, and more recently, recording artist. Her much-anticipated debut CD, "Two Way Mirror", is due in stores November 8, 2005. Produced by Dave Sebree at ASM studios in Austin, featuring the talents of Roscoe Beck, (Dixie Chicks' touring bassist), Steve Samuel (Jerry Jeff Walker's drummer), Eric Daub on piano/keyboards and Dave Sebree on guitars, the music is soft, moody pop with savvy imagery and poignant, intelligent lyric content. Renee is a past president of the Austin Songwriters Group, and a SESAC affiliate. She has shared the stage with hit songwriters Eric Kaz, Mark D. Sanders, and Jim Rushing, She has appeared on FOX television's morning show, and played live on Austin's KLBJ radio. She also watches a lot of baseball.
