Creative mixture of R&B and rap, with a down south twist. 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: SHOL'NUFF In your wildest musical fantasy, imagine being able to combine all the elements of today's urban music in one group. Hip Hop/ Rap, R&B, Neo Soul and Jazz. A combination of these genres within today's popular music would only create a unique sound, unparallel to other artists or groups. This unique style and sound is found in the Savannah, GA based group SHOL'NUFF. Composed of three (3) members, PigPen aka Harvey Watson (rap artist/producer), Henry 'Skeet' Mitchell (R&B singer/ producer) and Tony 'Pretty T' Mitchell (saxophonist/ producer). The group's different brand of music is attributed to their different musical influences, the likes of Marvin Gaye, Earth, Wind and Fire, Tupac Shakur, Stevie Wonder, Prince, Master P and Timbaland to name a few. In late 2003, the group released its first album entitled Where It All Began. On the strength of that album, the trio has been able to propel their careers due to a host of recent local performances, including several at Creole Red Restaurant, Kenny's Lounge and 'Bike Fest 2003', held in Beaufort, SC in which they have received rave reviews. . The group performs regularly at Creole Red Restaurant and Kenny's Lounge in Savannah, GA. The group has appeared in most of Savannah's major print publications, including their recent article in the SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS and CONNECTSAVANNAH. Currently, the group is finishing up their second album entitled A NICKEL BAG ..., and actively pursuing performance and production opportunities in the music industry.
