Lush, passionate, acoustic piano solos composed and played by Adam Dachman. 13 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Healing, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Adam Dachman is a man of two passions: One for music and one for medicine and healing. He is a gifted composer/pianist with a large following of fans ranging in age from 4-104. He has toured extensively in the midwest and has composed for film and television. He is a featured artist in multiple music libraries. His style is virtuosic but accessible. Well schooled from a young age, Adam studied classical, jazz, and composition for many years. He attended Medical School in the 80's and has been an active professional musician since. Working at two professions has not been easy, but Adam loves his work. Listeners are never disappointed in his albums or his concerts. Echoes In The Canyon introduced Adam as a genuine composer/pianist in the contemporary music scene. The natural sound of the album is a refreshing compilation in today's highly electronic market. Center of My Heart demonstrated Adam's production skills and ability to work with other talented musicians. It also demonstrated his ability to arrange for vocalists and to compose lyrics. The future for Adam will be interesting to see. A dual career as a surgeon and a musician is certain to play out in a truly unique way. Only time will tell how it all looks when the "operation" is complete. People who are interested in George Winston Jim Brickman Keith Emerson should consider this download.
