Aimee has received international praise for her unique blend of groove-laden brand of alternative/funk/hip-hop music. With vast musical influences ranging from the classic Jazz/R&B/Soul sounds of Bille Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, and Sarah Vaughn to the grooves of trend-setters Massive Attack, Radiohead, The Smiths, New Order, Mobb Deep, Wu Tang Clan, and Dr. Dre to name a few, Aimee Terrin combines the best of old-school soul with infectious R&B/hip-hop with a unique alternative edge. These collective sounds are clearly evident in this outstanding album. Aimees vocal presence can also be heard on major recording projects from a wide array of world-acclaimed performers such as Massive Attack, producer Glen Ballard, P.O.D, Pancho Sanchez and even the Godfather of Funk, George Clinton, who was so taken by Aimees unique talent that he also produced and sang with Aimee on Radio Friendly DJ's. Rap/hip-hop mogul Dr. Dre also lended a hand in the production of the songs Handle Your Business, Why, and Save You which are also featured on Aimees CD release. Aimees lyrical prowess has also received critical acclaim, not only does she write and perform all her own material but shes also written songs for such diverse artists from the R&B duo Floetry to the modern hard rock group P.O.D.
