Calabrese have taken the standard framework of modern Horror Rock (simple upbeat Punk Rock with a slight Rockabilly flair, catchy sing along choruses with Misfits-esque "whoa-ohs" and Horror-inspired lyrics) and works it flawlessly. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Hard Rock Details: In 2001, CALABRESE was formed by the three brothers Bobby, Jim, and Dave Calabrese. The brothers, from Phoenix, AZ, have combined Gothabilly looks, B-movie drive-in lyrics and a Rock n' Roll sound. CALABRESE has been described as "melodic, hook-laden, catchy, fun, horror-themed Rock with a Punk attitude." Blasko, the bassist for THE DEATH RIDERS and ROB ZOMBIE states, "I think CALABRESE is one of the top Horror Rock bands I have heard." After self-releasing the 6 song EP: MIDNIGHT SPOOKSHOW in 2003, to rave reviews from fans and critics from around the world, CALABRESE was approached by several Indie Labels. Declining the offers, CALABRESE has stayed true to their independence and created their own label, SPOOKSHOW RECORDS. For it's first release CALABRESE introduces "13 Halloweens" a thirteen song full length CD. CALABRESE has been asked to appear on such punk rock compilations as AZPunk.Comp V2, AZPunk.Comp V3, Hellnight-O-Rama 2, P.A.I.N. CALABRESE has also recorded their version of the song, "Night Of The Living Dead" for the MISFITS Tribute CD, "Too Much Horror Business A Tribute To The Misfits 1977-1983." CALABRESE appeals to those who feel left out of the current music scene, and with distribution in the U.S. and Germany (through a partnership with FiendForce Records) CALABRESE is quickly building an international underground name. With the release of the highly anticipated "13 Halloweens" and consistent touring and song writing CALABRESE pushes even further into the nightmares of helpless fans!
