Details: Debbie Fleming, Dorothy McDonall and Mary Ellen Moore met and became fast friends while singing soprano in the famed Toronto Mendelssohn Choir. After seeing the film O Brother Where Art Thou? they were inspired to form a country-roots trio to fulfill their love for this unspoiled music. In the 7 years theyve been together, they have performed from Nashville to Ontario, from radio to TV, festivals and house concerts to Roy Thomson Hall. They have now recorded three CDs the first one Angel Wings was debuted in Nashville, the second -- Girl Time, was recorded with members of The Bebop Cowboys and the newest CD "Livin' It" has just been released. "Livin' It" is all original material by Debbie Fleming, and features the exquisite harmonies that ChoirGirlz have become known for, supported by excellent musicians Steve Briggs(Bebop Cowboys), Victor Bateman, John Adames(Prairie Oyster), Burke Carroll, Don Reed (Quartette, South Mountain) Arturo Avalos(Jesse Cook, Buffy Ste. Marie). "Dixie Chicks meet the Andrews Sisters" is an apt description of the infectious music the ChoirGirlz love to perform, as they infuse a generous dollop of jazz harmonies in their fun, swinging country flavoured music. People are saying: Great songs and lead vocals by you on your songs! Amazing production and instrument work too. Fine expressive vocals in many styles, vocalese and harmony ...very clean sound. Darryl Palmer, The Singing DJ The group's harmonies are terrific too so dead on. The songs were too cool. I enjoyed each every one of you you all fit together like pieces of an intricate jig saw puzzle. Each piece compliments completes the other. Shawne Jackson, Toronto Vocalist You guys are totally amazing! The harmonies you come up with are complex, 'delicious' and a real treat! Female 'blues' version of the Kings' Singers!

..... You've got everything going for you....great voices, a really fun stage presence, interesting to look at...everything! Eva Douglas What a wonderful mix - you are all very individual but what a comin' together! Thank You! Peggy Este CBC Alumna ..Though all are over 35 the girlz swing their way with both appealing vocal talent and humour through a variety of styles from western to Django Reinhardt-style jazz, blues and cabaret ...
