Big, melodic songs- oriented college radio guitar rock. Think the Replacements, Soul Asylum and the Ramones 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: EMILY VALENTINE Gerry McGoldrick-Vocals,Guitars Steve Mercanti-Guitars Todd Sandler-Bass Dan McGroary-Drums Produced by Frank Brown "There are other spare rock-and roll gems on Famous,which was produced by Buzz Zeemer's Frank Brown.The anthemic 'Doesn't Have to Be' and the hurtling 'Mike Me' show McGoldrick's way with a nostalgic thought and a forthright melody,and suggest that though his vocals exhibit traces of Mick Jagger,it's his own sense of hurt that makes his songs worth hearing." Tom Moon Philadelphia Inquirer 12/97 "This quartet weaves sentimental notions and gritty guitar parts into songs that waver between anger and resignation." Neil Gladstone Philadelphia City Paper 1/98 "The advance I got has three damn good songs from the upcoming album 'Famous'.The first one,'Doesn't Have To Be' is awesome." Jill MacDowell Philadelphia Weekly 9/97
