Wacked out funny songs wrapped around rock, blues, jazz and folk riffs. 16 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Following the success of his first CD, Twisted Troubadour, which has sold over 200 copies, and was met with critical acclaim from his mother, Eric's fans clamored for a new CD of all humorous material. Eric and his producer, Paul Thomas, returned to the studio and spent five months trying to outshine the first CD. This time around, they decided to bring in some additional outstanding musicians to supercharge the project. Songs such as "Hormones On Overdrive" and "Allergic Reaction To Love", solid rockers, feature the magnificent and magical Edward Torres on lead guitar. "There's Something Strange About Suzie" and the title cut, "Bald Headed Fart With A Bad Attitude", feature The World Famous Joe King on trombone and piano. The talented Tom Waters came all the way from Nashville to play bass guitar on almost every track. The CD also features appearances from the "Hurt Me" girls, and the "Laff Trax". Marty Good added a tasteful dose of juice harp. Banjo the dog stopped by to howl. And of course, the demented Dr. Stevens is your guide throughout the experience. This new offering boasts 12 new songs, all quirky, and new mixes of "Yes Dear" and "Viagra Vacation", which appeared on the first CD. Buy it now, while you still can, as it makes a great stocking stuffer, but why wait until Christmas? It has proven to sound just as good in the car as in the home, and will certainly lighten your mood.
