Leading the Boston Hip-Hop Revolution. Viva. 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Boston-based rapper MC Exposition teams up with production duo The D-Boyz on his solo debut. Blending live instruments with hard beats and conscious lyrics, this hip-hop "concept album" follows Expo through A Day in the Life of an everyday Urbanite, riding on the train. Dealing with social issues such as poverty, war, and the injustices in the world caused by greedy politicians and bigots, "The Metro" is something that anyone familiar with the true nature of Hip-hop and it's message can enjoy. Fake cats need not apply. After getting his start as a spoken-word artist (he was an Alternate on the 2001 Cantab National Slam team), Expo has gone on to share the stage with many Hip-hop luminaries, such as: Edo. G, Jeru tha Damaja, Common, Cage, TAME-one, Mr. Lif and Akrobatic and many more. You can catch Expo rocking the mic solo, or with Boston's own live Hip-hop extravaganza, Audible Mainframe, who present killer live interpretations of many of the songs found on "The Metro". Look for him on mixtapes by TD3, JayCeeOh and the D-Boyz. VIVA! ALSO AVAILABLE ON CD BABY: featuring Exposition: The D-Boyz Mixtape Album (2003 Marxminship Records) - cdbaby.com/dboyz Audible Mainframe: "FrameWork" (2004 Emerson Records) - - cdbaby.com/audiblem and Jake the Snake: "The Arrival" (2004 Gangreen Records) COMING SOON
