This album will touch your heart, your soul and your mind. A new age folk album in the vein of Tracy Chapman, Mary Chapin Carpenter, and Amy Grant. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, NEW AGE: New Age Details: Jamie's earliest memories are wanting to play guitar. She remembers playing her plastic acoustic along with Elvis re-runs. Although you might say that she has taken the long way around, Jamie has been writing songs and playing at her church since her pre-teen years. Six years ago she left a promising health care career to be a youth minister, since that time her writing has taken a decidedly Christian turn. Her music is as popular with teens and young adults as it is with parents and grandparents. Her insightful lyrics are presented in a catchy and rhythmic style. She is a member of the Gospel Music Association, Pittsburgh Songwriters Association, and the Catholic Association of Musicians, United Catholic Video and Media Association. Her music has been featured at numerous Youth Rallies, conferences and radio stations. She has performed numerous benefit concerts including Together We Hope to benefit Catholic Charities USA, Benefits for Habitat for Humanity and for local Homeless Programs.
