Details: The Konrad EP "beautiful love" represents a unique departure from the electronic music Jeffrey Konrad has become known for over the past decade. Acoustic, sparse and melodic; "beautiful love" demonstrates an intimately personal side to the versatile songwriter. Based around classical guitar, voice and minimal accompaniment, Konrad's songs draw the listener in with a diverse range of emotions that explore the passions and perils of love. While the songs often navigate themes of sorrow and melancholy, the dark clouds always seem to crack open with occasional rays of hope and optimism. Contains six Konrad-penned tunes and one classic jazz standard. Recorded during the legendary "Struggle in the Hive" sessions. Recorded by Patrick Stolley at Future Appletree Studios. Digitally remastered by Konrad @ EPJ studios. Konrad: Voice, guitar, piano Bill Golden: Mandolin and percussion on "Garden" Stolley: Drums, bass, cello, backing vocals. Cover art: Woodcut color print "moon shot" by James Konrad (1970)
