Authentic roots reggae album, filled positive and uplifting messages. 13 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Mounia Sahara Bio The African Princess Mounia Sahara Ezzahar, born in Morocco-North Africa; She migrated to Canada with her parents at the tender age of two years old where she was surrounded by music constantly, due to the fact that her father was the Bass player for a group called The Box. She was always playing with the instruments and singing with her Dad as she grew older. At age ten, she entered her first Young Talent Contest; she blew them away and won the event. She continued singing for a period of time until she lost interest for some time pursuing other endeavors. She was rediscovered by her husband and producer Delroy Silverado Roberts who practically forced her into the studios. In December 1997, Mounia sang harmonies for Ken Booths Sparkle Re-mix by Young Lions Studio for Vintage Reggae Tribute to Delroy Wilson. Her dbut performance with Everton Blender in April 1999, was a total sensation that warmed the hearts of the audiences. With her 1st C.D. album completed and ready for release very soon, the stage should be set for this magnificent new artist : Mounia! May 2000, Silver Globe Records has release Mounia on her first single entitled, RASTA, as well as Admiral Tibbet on Mounias Rasta instrumental as a single. The singles are distributed by Penthouse Records. Listen for her !
