A highly praised mix of Americana, Folk and in-your-face Bluegrass recorded by one of the States most recognized BG bands. 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: When The RARELY HERD formed in southeast Ohio in 1989, they had no idea that they'd become known as America's latest innovators of Bluegrass entertainment. Their 1992 "IBMA World of Bluegrass" showcase sparked The HERD's international acclaim. The RARELY HERD made their chart debut with their first Pinecastle Records release in 1992, "Midnight Loneliness" and followed it up with their second in 1994, "Heartbreak City", then went on to receive a GMA "DOVE" Award nomination for their 1996 gospel album, "What About Him?". In an unprecedented accomplishment in the history of the National Bluegrass Awards in Nashville, for 10 consecutive years (1993 through 2002) The RARELY HERD was named "Entertaining Band of the Year". Aside from being seen on CMT, TNN, and Japan's network giant NHK, the latest in their ongoing string of honors was being given the "Grand Masters Gold Award" at the National Bluegrass Music Awards in 2003. After all these years, The RARELY HERD continues to win awards and bring audiences to their feet! Family Style Entertainment The RARELY HERD 'packs the house' with good, clean, family style entertainment. They are known around the globe as one of the most honored and respected groups in Bluegrass music. In 1993, The RARELY HERD was named one of Europes "Top 3 Best New Bands". In 1994, Japan's largest television network (NHK-TV) spent two weeks traveling with The HERD, filming a documentary on Bluegrass Music in America, featuring THE RARELY HERD! Recipients of over 120 National and regional awards and nominations, and performing for over one million fans annually, THE RARELY HERD continues to keep the tradition of entertainment in their show. Uproarious comedy, captivating vocals and top notch music make THE RARELY HERD one of the nations Premier Audience draws from New York to California! Whatever you do, you have to see them
