Learning To Live Again By S L Carpenter Life had turned into a sad, bitter routine for Michelle until she finally decided to follow her dream and start again somewhere new. She's finally dumped that jerk boyfriend, and left her dead-end job for a new and hopefully better future. The last thing she needed to find in her train compartment is a gorgeous, passed-out guy! And she certainly doesn't expect to find herself developing a serious case of the hot and hornies for him. Josh is embarrassed to find he stumbled into the wrong compartment, but charmed by the woman he meets there. She's the embodiment of all his dreams, but it's the wrong time and the wrong place for both of them. A chance encounter on a train ignites passions and emotions buried deep. The fire quickly engulfs Michelle in desires and sexual escapades, extinguished long ago. Even though everything seems so right, she can't ignore her last relationship and the scars it left behind. Now she has a choice to make-stay and forget her dream or go and leave behind the one man that showed her how love could be. Perhaps it's time to learn to love again.
