Made For Two Men By Madison Hayes "It's not as though it's unheard of. There are plenty of multi-relationships. Some of them even work," he argued. "I've an uncle who has two wives. They're happy!" "Yeah, well it wouldn't work for me." "Why not?" "Because I don't feel that way about her!" Danger exploded. His brilliant eyes were wild, his breathing uneven as he stared at Saxon. "Because I'm an Earther!" he shouted, jabbing a thumb into his chest. "Earthers don't share their women." "Never?" "Not if they care about them," Danger ground out through clenched teeth. "Not if they love them?" Saxon asked quietly, but Danger didn't answer. "What happens when two friends love the same woman?" "Then," Danger grunted, averting his gaze, "they're not friends anymore." "What?" Saxon asked with quiet panic. "What?" "You heard me." "Yeah, I heard you. I just don't believe you. Are Earthers really that fucked up?" Danger owes Saxon his life. He'd do anything for his friend, but Pink's love seems a high price to pay. With three hearts on the line, Saxon and Pink must convince Danger that the lovely imp from the planet eYona not only desires both men - she's made for them.
