Diverse melodious and active mutually exclusive guitar founded power trio sway with a pocket so tight you'll be begging for more. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Emo almost Now Songs Details: It seems like fate and good fortune has brought together the members of almost Now. This trio consists of: Eric Joniec on vocals and bass guitar. Bryan Kelly on guitar and backing vocals. Matt Behnken on drums and percussion. Eric and Bryan have been playing together for over ten years. In the early 1990's they were in a band named The Cause. In the mid 90's they did some song writing and recording on Eric's 4-trac tape recorder. Matt and Eric have been playing together since 1995. They were in a band named Cartune, where they also enjoyed writing songs together. In 1999 it finally happened, all three formed almost Now. "It's hard to find this much emotional and musical chemistry. These guys love writing, jamming and performing together." Their first CD consists of a variety of songs. From the power pop of "GUS", to the poignant "Everlearn", to the rockin of "Pickin Up The Pieces", and the melancholy mood of "Numb". The boys had fun recording these songs at Eric's Green Hill Studios, and it shows. Their musical influences are vast. Stretching the spectrum from Prince to Black Sabbath. If you like melody, power, meaning and a good vibe then this CD is for you!
