The contemporary folk-pop arrangements of Bill's powerful story-songs transport you back to the 19th century seacoast and into the lives of the characters. You'll experience their joys and sorrows, romance and heartbreak on the seas and shore. 8 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folk Pop Details: CREST OF A WAVE - by Bill Pere When was the last time a song made you gasp in amazement? Since the original version was released in 1991, "Crest of a Wave" has created a buzz up and down the Eastern Seacoast. Called "an incredible piece of songwriting" by the Connecticut Songwriters Association, this album of interwoven story-songs launched Bill's career and made him a nationally respected lyrical craftsman in today's music scene. Bill was named Connecticut Songwriter of the Year in 1991. The songs are inspired by exhibits at the Mystic Seaport Museum, and the settings of the songs are based on places in this recreated maritime village. The unusual combination of contemporary sound and stories about people and love in a 19th century seacoast town gives the songs wide appeal, and the lyrics are cinematic and powerful. Bill's midi-guitar arrangements are very distinctive. 8 Tracks, 50 Minutes, Lyric Sheet Included! The track "Six Candles in the Chandlery" hit #4 on the Artist Launch charts in Sept, 2004. If you like songs with lyrics that tell detailed, character-driven stories, check out Bill's other recordings, especially "CITYSCAPE" and "High School My School" By the way, proceeds from the sale of this CD (and all of Bill's CD's) go to help Hunger Relief and family service agencies, through Local United Network to Combat Hunger (LUNCH) at www/lunchensemble.com BILL PERE - background highlights * IMC Independent Artist of the Year, 2003 * Official Connecticut State Troubadour appointed 1995 by CT Commission on the Arts * Executive Director, Connecticut Songwriters Association * Founder and Executive Director, LUNCH (Local United Network to Combat Hunger) raising hundreds of thousands of dollars for hunger relief programs in Connecticut through benefit concerts * Presenter and Mentor at Indie
