Over 60,000 fans on her myspace page. A tour schedule that takes her into schools all over the country. The face of a major national campaign. A debut album already making its mark on itunes and all of this accomplished by the age of 18. Britney Christian is an artist marked by determination and hard work. Having co-written 9 out of the 11 tracks off of her first album Christian comments, "I believe its really important as an artist to be involved in every area of my music. Through songwriting I'm able to use all the experiences I have been through in my life to relate to people." Britney will entertain you with her debut album "Everything to Me", a diverse collection of pop/rock tunes that highlight her powerhouse of a voice. Whether its her clever lyrics in songs like "Stupid Boyfriends", her heartfelt ballads like "This is the Life", "Make it Go Away" and "Did you Forget" or even soulful rock songs such as "To be Me" and "Everything to Me", Britney is sure to leave you rocking out. Britney is no amateur to the world of music. Having sung her very first solo at church at the age of 4, she fell in love with music and hasn't stopped entertaining since. "I've always known without a doubt that singing was what I wanted to do with my life. Getting on stage and seeing the smiles and reactions from people brings me so much joy." She went on to sing at local charity events, talent shows, and musical theater productions. At age 12 she sang the National Anthem at Dodger Stadium, which fueled her passion to sing to large crowds. Since then she has sung the Anthem for the Giants, Diamondbacks, A's, Avengers, Galaxy's, Clippers, Lakers and many more. At age 16, Britney signed on as the exclusive spokesperson for a new marketing campaign, "Milk Rocks". The campaign was designed to motivate kids to make healthy choices regarding food, drink and exercise.

Britney is on hundreds of millions of milk cartons all over the country that are in schools, airports, hotels etc. In addition, Britney travels all over the United States into High Schools and Middle Schools giving concerts and signing autographs. "The 'Milk Rocks!' campaign was really a dream come true for me" says Christian, "It's the perfect way to get my music out there and at the same time be a part of something that's so important for kids to learn." Aside from the "Milk Rocks!" campaign, Britney has had her share of national press. In November and December of 2006 her single was played 3.4 million times in movie theaters all across America as a part of the MovieTunes program playing before the start of every movie. In December and January, Britney was the featured artist on Radio Disney's Incubator program, which had her interview playing three times a day. Britney was also featured on a Today Show Segment about the growing fad of girls picking up rock and roll instruments. Her songs have been featured on Ghost Whisperer, Laguna Beach and Guiding Light. You can be sure that you haven't seen the end of this talented singer/songwriter/guitarist. She is bound to be the next big break out artist. Christian simply states, "I won't give up till I've made it to the top!" People who are interested in Christina Aguilera P!nk Avril Lavigne should consider this download.
