

Mp3 C. Daniel Boling - Welcome Home

DOWNLOAD HERE

Finger-style acoustic guitar and warm tenor - these are original songs that tell stories and draw you in to the singer's world. 16 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details:

*Singer/songwriter FINALIST, South Florida Folk Festival 2003 *Singer/songwriter FINALIST, South Florida Folk Festival 2002 *Singer/songwriter FINALIST, Heartland Folks Fest 2001 *Singer/songwriter FINALIST, South Florida Folk Festival 2001 *Singer/songwriter FINALIST, Suwannee Springfest Folk Festival 2000, Live Oak, FL *Singer/songwriter FINALIST, South Florida Folk Festival 2000 *Daniel's song WELCOME HOME was chosen as the Festival Theme Song for the Albuquerque (New Mexico) Annual Folk Festival HERE'S WHAT FOLKS ARE SAYING ABOUT THE December 2000 release

"WELCOME HOME":  "CDB's writing is so insightful and his imagery is astonishing at times." -Lucky Boyd (Singer/Songwriter, Houston, TX)

 "Daniel's guitar playing is excellent, his vocals are awesome and the subject matter for his songs is diverse yet there is a common thread of family ties, humor and just down right good story telling. I honestly think it is one of the best Folk recordings I have heard." -Jesse Thurgood (Singer/Songwriter, Provo, UT - Kerrville Folk Festival NewFolk Songwriter Finalist 2001)  "Boling's voice is comfortable and warm, embracing each song in perfect Texas folk fashion. The 2000 release is "WELCOME HOME" (Perfectly Stable Music) and how fitting it is that Kerrville's buzz phrase is the same. C. Daniel Boling is an accomplished guitarist, making each song a delicate balance of meaningful lyrics and stylish music. Boling can hold his own with Dana Cooper in the way he moves through chord progressions with purpose and punctuality. In the same breath, his folk tunes could as easily be orchestrated to rock anthems due to the quality of the foundation of each song. This is a great folk album, and Boling does it without re-tuning his guitar to some different unimaginable open chord for each song. Thanks Daniel." -MyTexasMusic.com

 Albuquerque Journal - Venue - December 8, 2000

WELCOME HOME C. Daniel Boling (3 1/2 stars) C. Daniel Boling is an Albuquerque singer-songwriter with a special gift. Boling's story-songs -- of remembering family, of coming of age, of loving life -- are honest without being sappy and his style comes straight out of the honored American folksinging tradition. Part of Boling's gift is felt in the warmth of his voice, the directness of his lyrics and the simplicity of the melodies. Take, for example, the opening selection, which is the title cut. Here is an excerpt: "I see we've all made our way back again where our spirits are made new. We gather here to share this time from all life's many walks... to share the music, to share our songs, to sit alone and talk." Two songs that speak to the working man and woman are the thoughtful "Who I Am" and the kicky "Mid-Week Blues." Here's a line from the blues: "Some day I'd like to not show up and never even call. Stay at home and lie in bed and not get up at all." "Who I Am" advises that we should not let our jobs define us: "This is the job that feeds my family. But it's not who I am, just what I do." Boling has received some recognition, he was a finalist in the singer-songwriter category of the South Florida Folk Festival. Boling deserves recognition in his hometown so you can say, "I knew him when..." -- David Steinberg (Music Editor)

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: