Cherisse began singing at a very early age. By age 7, she was performing for conventions, youth crusades and other events. Soon after people began to discover the warmth and anointing that came across as she ministered in song. In her early 20's she joined the gospel group Charisma and a month later was signed to the Savoy Gospel label. They soon began to travel the world and share the stage with many gospel artists. In 1997, the Lord blessed Cherisse to record her first solo project entitled, "DUE SEASON". The talented Christopher Brinson of the Malaco label produced this CD. With this release, Cherisse was in demand and traveled throughout the United States and abroad. Cherisse has shared the stage with such great artists as Yolanda Adams, Commissioned, Shirley Ceasar, Hezekiah Walker, Kelly Price, Richard Smallwood, LaShun Pace, Deitrick Haddon, Smokie Norful, Byron Cage and others. The Atlanta Gospel Choice Awards nominated her for Best Female Artist. Upscale Magazine also awarded her for best New Female Artist. Cherisse released her highly anticipated sophomore project entitled; "IN THE WAIT" in an electrifying sold out concert at The Clayton County Performing Arts Center. The talented Christopher Brinson also produced this project. This CD has six songs that were penned by the artist herself. This CD promises to encourage, uplift and restore your faith in God. The American Gospel Music Awards also nominated her for Best Female Artist. Cherisse has been seen performing on BET, The Word Network, Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN) and Channel 57 (AIB).
