Fran Friedman's very popular Parents' Choice Award winning CD keeps everyone smiling as it promotes kindness, acceptance, inclusiveness and nurtures self-esteem. This engaging collection of songs is both educational and lots of fun. 16 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly, KIDS/FAMILY: Educational

Details: 2004 Parents Choice Silver Award Winning CD This 16 song collection is a perfect choice for children, parents, teachers and childcare providers. Each song on this CD was chosen carefully for children. The music is upbeat and full of important messages. Tracks 2, 6, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 are about how special children are to us all. Tracks 7, 8 are about cooperation and how working together is best. Track 4 teaches about respectfulness, and empathy. Track 3 is all about disability awareness. Even if you can't do one thing, you can still be capable at many other things. Where Do My Sneakers Go at Night? It's the most popular song from the children's point of view. Children have a lot of fun acting out the story - by being the sneakers in the playground or by being the sleepers who go on a search for the missing sneakers. Fran Friedman is a Parents Choice and Parents' Guide award winning children's recording artist from Wayland, MA. She uses her background in Audiology(Ph.D.) and Neuropsychology (post-doctorate) to choose songs for the CDs, so they are developmentally appropriate and meaningful. Fran's greatest hope is for children to have fun with the songs, while learning about valuable qualities in themselves and others, such as, kindness, acceptance, and respect. People who are interested in Linda Ronstadt, Tom Chapin, Red Grammer should consider this download.
