They will dance and sing with you all day long and connect with the music in you! Fingers and Toes is for counting using our 20 digits. One Heart is about body parts, but without my heart, nothing will start... Recipe for a Rainbow tells how to make one- no need to shake it up! A countermelody adds interest. Le p'tit chaton is a simple song in French about a kitten that waits on the front door mat, thinking about caresses and purring! (I'm an ex-cat myself) Soap and Water- there can never be enough songs about bath time to keep little ones amused while in the tub! Mr. Spice- A very upbeat song about Mr Spice and his girlfriend, Paprika, who drive around in his green limousine, spicing up life. Churn, Churn, Churn- All children will know the secret about how butter is made. Just a Little Monster is a rap about a monster who loves children.... for lunch. I Can- There are so many things I can do- and if I can't, at least I can try! Harmony of the Spheres- In Medieval times they believed that the planets and stars moved in celestial harmony. This song is about how we are like planets and stars in our own lives. I Need, I Love, I Sing is about the basics in life: Nature, music and love! Waiting for the Weekend- Aren't we all waiting for this? Kids can sing the days of the week and some things to do on the weekend. The other tracks are the accompaniments without singing for kids to practice on their own. This is great for teachers who want to use them for class or performances.
