Playing their own unique brand of world groove music that they call "world booty pop," the Boston Globe exclaims that "Lovewhip has a celebratory and upbeat feel that has kept crowds dancing everywhere they play." Lovewhip has been setting the dancefloors on fire constantly touring up and down the East coast from Bar Harbor, ME to Key West, FL in promotion of their first CD Whip it baby! on their own record label, Juicy Juju Records. Since its release in the summer of 2000, Whip it baby! has sold over 3000 copies. Lovewhip recently came out of the studio with their long-awaited sophomore CD, Bouncehall, also on Juicy Juju Records. Bouncehall includes ten of the hottest songs from their over the top live show. The CD ranges from the Jamaican dancehall inspired title track "Bouncehall," to crowd-pleasers such as "I Don't Know Why," to dubbed out reggae songs like "Winnie the Wailer," to the girl-power anthem "Ego Fantastic," and the "Bouncehall Super Special Remix," produced by Chris Frantz and Tina Weymouth of the Talking Heads and the Tom Tom Club, and remixed by DJ Monkone from NYC, all tied together by mesmerizing vocals and horns, and the vibe we all need, HAPPINESS. LOVEWHIP makes you HAPPY! Following the CD release in May 2003 Lovewhip will be touring the East Coast extensively, and then set their Loveship sails west for a national tour in the fall. Lovewhip's world-pop dance music takes the styles of African highlife, soukous, and juju and mixes them with Jamaican reggae and ska, always maintaining a strong pop sensibility. Sublimely catchy tunes like "Come Down JJ," "No More You," and "Bodega, My Son," have made Lovewhip's first CD Whip it baby! a crowd favorite. Lovewhip's great vocal harmonies and blasting saxophone solos will put a smile on your face, cause your booty to vibrate, and encourage a sultry motion to emanate from all parts of your body. All Lovewhip members can crack the whip in their own right. Lead singer Erin Harpe's background is in delta blues and it comes through in her passionate and vampy vocal style. She is also Lovewhip's main guitar player, weaving melodic Afro-pop guitar lines with percussive Jamaican skanks on her jet black Gibson guitar. Singer, sax player, and guitarist Sistah Nancy Loedy brings to her singing and playing a sexy depth, charm, and charisma that out and out wail. Bass player Juicy Jim Countryman, with his Afrofunk world punk style, lays down the bass so hard he nearly grooves out of his shoes, all the while providing a third vocal harmony. Drummer and superwhip sex star Krazy Karly Karlito Grohmann rips up a slew of crazy cross-cultural dance beats, never tiring in his main aim to vibrate the dancefloor. So don't miss the chance to catch the East Coast's best worldfunkpunk dance band now - before the secret's out! Lovewhip makes you happy!!!
