One of the most brilliant guitarists of Costa Rica offers his personal version of popular melodies of times gone by, learned during his youth from his elders. This is a sensitive interpretation enhanced by twenty years of impeccable classical training. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, EASY LISTENING: Nostalgia Details: Mario says: I was born among musicians. My mother played guitar like my brothers, my maternal uncles and my maternal grandfather. I am the little one of the family. At that time (I was born in the 65), televisions were rare then, in my house were played guitar and sang at night. Also arriving other neighbours musicians, and went to grow are boleros. I always liked to draw melodies by ear and by little me met with classical music. I went to Castella as ten years old and there he played classical and popular, and since then I do. He was born in Alajuela, Costa Rica. Actually he lives in Salvador Baha, Brasil. He is a musical teacher in the Faculdade de Baha.
