Rollies singing career began in 1996. I would always sing around the fire station while cooking or cleaning. One night the firefighters talked me into entering a talent show at Graham Central Station. I sang El Paso, and was accused of lip-sinking. It was then that that Rollie knew he needed to develop his own style. He Loves Performing His Original Material and Is always searching for a new song! He Has Co written with several Huge Names in Country with several ..1 hits. and will write with anyone "cause you never know whos got an original idea" The following year, Rollie made his debut at Fan Fair in Nashville where he was introduced to many famous country stars. By this time, the entertainment bug had bitten and Rollie was on his way. Later that summer he was the first country act to ever perform at the newly refurbished Orpheum Theater in downtown Phoenix. opening shows for Johnny Rodriguez and Arizonas own Rex Allen, Jr. Also in 1997, Rollie was presented with a couple of prestigious awards from the Arizona Country Music Association. He won the Best New Male Vocalist award and the Songwriter of the Year award for his song Middle of a Heartache, co-written by Rose Diehl. Rollie can impersonate almost any singer. Engelbert, Tom Jones, Dean Martin, Merle Haggard, Walter Brennen, and on and on you never know whats coming out of me.. I dont But i like to Have fun with new singers as well as the standards I try to apeal to young and old! In recent years, Rollie has entertained at Country Thunder USA, Arizonas largest country music event, where he shared the stage with such major acts as Alan Jackson, Sawyer Brown, The Late Chris LeDoux, Steve Holy, Emerson Drive and Trick Pony.
