

Mp3 The Bloody Lovelies - Some Truth And A Little Money

DOWNLOAD HERE

Melodic Piano Driven Pop-Rock with a dirty electric edge. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Beatles-pop Details: The Bloody Lovelies in Bullets Band Members: Randy Wooten - Songwriting - Keys - Vocals Eric Holden - Bass - Wit - Charm Craig Macintyre - Drums - Machismo - Vegetarianism Lance Konerth - Guitar - Slinky Moves Current Albums: The 3-Days EP, Some Truth And A Little Money Current Status: Wise Strutting Rocking the United States Facts About The Bloody Lovelies: Randy Wooten formed the band on the campus of Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee. October 30, 2002 The Bloody Lovelies tied Shakira for the number four spot on Gavin's list of most added titles. The band once had to beat-box its way through a fraternity party The song "You Don't Love Me" has been played on almost 50 Top-40 radio stations in the US. The band has received fan emails from The Netherlands, Belgium, Yugoslavia, and Japan. And Canada. Eric Holden has played on The Tonight Show In 1999 an excerpt of the band's song "Lonely" was played during a story about Napster on NPR's All Things Considered Randy Wooten taught himself to play the piano and speaks French Craig Macintyre's kick drum once "found its way" into Joe Walsh's swimming pool. MP3Music Director, Rod Underhill describes The Bloody Lovelies as "The best kept secret in Rock-n-Roll." Eric Holden Roots for the Red Sox Contrary to rumor The Bloody Lovelies were not raised in the woods by Jewel Randy Wooten can juggle The Bloody Lovelies song "Ceiling" has gotten over 110-thousand downloads from MP3 radio. Craig Macintyre once saved a blues singer's life with orange juice. The Bloody Lovelies spent six weeks on Mainstream Radio Index's MRIsing chart of growth in medium-market top-40 stations sharing the chart with Sheryl Crow, The Red Hot Chili Peppers and Pearl Jam. The Bloody Lovelies were the only unsigned band on the chart during those six weeks.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: