GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Bursting onto the Gospel music scene is Singer-Songwriter sensation, Tomell Brown. His smooth and soulful vocals are soothing and captivating listeners everywhere. Tomell was born on May 18, 1976 in Syracuse, New York. He now resides in Decatur, GA. Tomell is also an Elder at Refreshing Church of God in Christ. As early as 2 years of age, Tomell has been singing. At the age of 9 he began writing songs. Tomell discovered he had a unique gift after singing a solo in church at age 5. The anointing of God upon his voice moved many people to tears, leaving the church congregation astounded, standing on their feet and applauding. That performance sparked invitations to sing at churches, talent shows, and other events locally in his hometown of Syracuse, New York. Tomell has continued this trend of encore performances and has become one of the most sought after Gospel vocalists in the metropolitan Atlanta area and his demand is continually growing nationally and worldwide. Some of Tomell's major music achievements were winning the 1997 best soloist award at the Southern Georgia Church of God in Christ Music Convention. As a student at Morris Brown College, Tomell has won the Student Support Services Performing Arts Award during the 1998-1999 school year and the 1999-2000 school year. Tomell has received a Certificate of Achievement Award in 1998 from the Billboard Song Contest for the song he wrote, "I'm Lost Without Your Love." Tomell was a performer at the 2003 Holy Hip Hop Awards and Artist Showcase and has appeared many times on local and national Christian television stations and broadcasts. Tomell was one of the 20 Finalists in the 2003 Praise Discovery Talent Showcase at the Georgia World Congress Center. Artists such as Commissioned, The Winans, Dawkins Dawkins, New Edition, Boyz II Men, Jodeci, R. Kelly, Brian McKnight, and Joe, has influenced the fresh, innovative sound of Tomell's music. The sultry

style of Tomell's vocals are reminiscent of an R&B singer serenading the most sensitive lady, but his lyrics are true to the Word of God, testifying of God's love, grace, and deliverance through personal life experiences. Tomell's main goal as a Singer-Songwriter is to encourage the youth to establish a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He endeavors to reach those people who don't have knowledge of God and who are not in the body of Christ. However, at the same time he wants to encourage the saints of God who are in the church, young and old, to continue living holy and to be strong in this journey of life. With the release of his debut album, appropriately titled, "Soul Winner," Tomell should succeed in winning him many souls for Jesus Christ, as well as national and international mass appeal. Finally, Gospel music has been blessed by a sorely needed breath of fresh air, the gifted and talented, Tomell Brown.

CURRENT NEWS Tomell's new sophomore CD, "Love-The Diary of a Young, Holiness, Minister" will be in stores soon. So look out for it in early 2006.
