Unique soul originating from the sounds of southern Africa, flavored with the sounds of contemporary soul, r&b, and popular music with a rare touch of class. 14 MP3 Songs WORLD: African, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: "She can take her voice wherever she wants it to go - soaring up there with the flutes, whispering with the mournful clarinets, roaring like a horn and booming like a tuba. She moves from achingly pretty highs to gut-wrenching soul-shouter deliveries in an effortless glide that leaves you with your hair standing on end.....Not since Miriam Makeba have we had such a songbird as we have in Tsidii. Glynis O'Hara, Sunday Star Review "A little of Ella,a touch of the blues and a voice that mellowed in the Lesotho mountains. Tsidii Le Loka's singing makes the critics swoon" Dee Phillips, Cosmopolitan "She doesn't just sing, she summons" Dwight Hobbes, Aesthetics .....Although this album is neither a narrowly focused "social issues" album nor an "African" album, it touches on the realities of Tsidii's life and experiences. In describing it, Tsidii has coined the description - NEW WORLD MUSIC / MUSIC FOR A NEW WORLD. It can be enjoyed by people with a wide variety of tastes with an openness to a fresh sound. Tsidii's worldly perspective combined with the brilliance of music Producer Francois Breant, have created a unique and winning collaboration. Here's to a royal odyssey and to the beginnings of a music for a new world...Enjoy!
