powerful urban music representin the struggle... 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Combine the spice and passion of a Venezuelan mother, who worked two jobs while attending school, with the struggle and pride of an African father, who was too proud to be there and you get an interesting story. Meet X-TRCT! Representing two ethnic backgrounds, X-TRCT is the lyrical bridge between two influential communities that embrace and truly define hip-hop. X-TRCT a.k.a. X, discovered at a young age that life is a struggle and with no one to teach him to be a man, a trouble maker was born. Cradled by the arms of thugs and gangstas from the southwest side of Houston, Texas, by age 13, X's idle hands inadvertently discovered poetry; which to X, was a good method of releasing his anger and frustrations. By 16, he left home and with the rhythm in his bones and the streets watching, X took his poetry to new heights and began to rap. X-TRCT brings passion back to the South and is a voice representing the people. He is on the radar of being the next to blow up in the sizzling Houston rap scene. X has already done numerous shows at venues across the southern region. He also no stranger to the radio circuit with several radio appearances and more importantly record spins on the airwaves. Keep your eyes open and you will see X's promotional truck in the streets giving people what they always want- FREE promotional gifts! X-TRCT begins his promotional tour in November 2005 and will continue through 2006. Stay tuned for his debut album, God's Gift, which will be in stores November 15, 2005.
