Teach them impulse control. Through fascinating and funny stories, Medina, a developmental molecular biologist and dad, unravels how a child's brain develops. You will view your children--and how to raise them--in a whole new light. You will view your children and how to raise them in a whole new light. You'll learn: Where nature ends and nurture begins Why men should do more household chores What to do when emotions run hot The importance of your child's ability to relate to others Smart and happy are inseparable in the brain The best predictor of academic performance The only parenting style proven to produce great kids What you do right now before pregnancy, during pregnancy, and through the first five years will affect your children for the rest of their lives.
