Book four in the Cursed MacKinnons series. Lynn's ghost-hunting trip to Scotland takes an unpleasant turn when she's kidnapped from her camp by a group of men rambling about curses and a brotherhood. In a daring escape, Lynn falls over a cliff and awakens in a cave being guarded by a ghost, who insists she's the key to freeing a man who has been cast in stone by an evil curse. And what a man he is...

Padon has been imprisoned for over two centuries, frozen in stone. He's awakened when a sexy siren recites the anti-curse, but he's only partially free. Stone by day, man by night. Passion ignites between him and his savior immediately, which makes falling to the curse each morning that much harder. He and Lynn seek a resolution by making the trek to Padon's family castle. But the kidnapers have other plans and will do whatever they must to make sure this couple never makes it to their destination. Author: Nina, Tara Publisher: Ellora's Cave Publishing Inc.
