Details: What if you could be anything you want to be? Create the life you want to live? What if its never too late to accomplish your dreams? My love of singing and recording began at the tender age of 2 or 3 years, when my folks handed me a microphone and hooked me up to a reel to reel recorder. I still recall the amazement of hearing myself sing 'Me and My Teddy Bear'! I loved telling stories, playing make believe and entertaining everyone with my silliness. Such were the dreams of childhood, and for many years I believed the opportunity to fulfill them had passed me by. But, when I began to apply metaphysical principals I discovered in the writings of Ernest Holmes, and many, many, other wonderful teachers - old and new my life began to change in ways both dramatic and subtle. I decided to act as if I knew how to turn the poetry of my heart into song, and people appeared to assist me in the process of doing so. I celebrated my 50th birthday recording in the studio. My dream came true. Following is a 'gratitude list' which over the years, Grace has gifted me to accomplish: Published article in American Girl Magazine age 12 Toured with New Covenant Singers as an ensemble singer and soloist for 2 years Member of RHS Madrigals, sang in Mexico City 1975 Accepted by audition into theater arts training college, Santa Maria, California Scholarship recipient, ACT Summer Conservatory, San Francisco, 1976 Performed with Good Company Players Numerous community theater and college theater productions Co-author, co-producer and female leading role in musical comedy: - The Real Lysistrata, (an adaptation) which enjoyed a successful 9-week summer run
