GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Country Gospel Details: Carmen is a gifted singer and songwriter. She began singing as a child and graduated her abilities through the church. Over the past several years, Carmen has matured in the natural and the spiritual. The Lord's call on her life has taken her gift of song and songwriting to a higher level, which has allowed her to participate in many workshops and seminars. Carmen's heart for missions was enhanced significantly, after a ten-day missions trip to Lima, Peru. Carmen's music is very eclectic; it inspires you to dance, rejoice, reflect, move, cry, praise and worship. Her music captivates audiences with blessings and overwhelms them with words of healing and love. She is humbled and honored that God has chosen her to touch the lives of people from different ethnic, economic and social standings. Her vision is that the music will impact all cultures and bring people in communion and right relationship with the living God. Her prayer is that God would use her as a catalyst for revival.
