Initially a studio project, DEEP STEP gradually captivated new fans by releasing its first captivating yet down-to-earth single "Just a Little Love" in September 2007, climbing the Brazilian charts. The success of Just a Little Love was exactly what the producers Fabianno Almeida and Ian Duarte (from Ramada) needed to keep this new project going. In its second single, "Promise You," (which has just been released exclusively by UP IN THE AIR) DEEP STEP hooks the listeners with strong vocals and an addictive melody. Promise You is infused with a techno-pop sound inspired by such 1990s icons as Erasure, New Order and Depeche Mode. The "Original Super Radio Version" already stands out due to its unique mixing elements of Pop vocals, trance synths and RandB drums. Ricky Veronas remixes packs this track with extra power with its unmistakable electro synthesizers and strong house beat catapulting this hit into Brazilian DJs Sets throughout the countrys major radios stations. Just a Little Love and Promise You are just the beginning for DEEP STEP and the new hits just waiting on the horizon.
