Cowboy / Western Heritage 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Cowboy, COUNTRY: Western Show all album songs: Back On The Border Songs Details: Pure Original describes Gil Prather. Known by his musician peers as The Man from the Rio Grande, Gil offers a unique style of self-penned Cowboy/Western music with a Tex-Mex border flavor. His music reflects his younger years of growing up on the Mexican border as a working cowboy in the Big Bend Country of West Texas. Early in his career, Gils versatility was recognized by major producers. He has written and produced several award-winning radio and TV commercials and, in 1996, he wrote the award winning song, Ill Be Back in Texas by the Fall, which was voted Song of the Year by the prestigious Academy of Western Artists. From 1990 -1997, Gil was the other brother in the nationally acclaimed Jose Brothers comedy act which toured the southern United States and in the mid 1990s, he teamed with Robert James Waller (The Bridges of Madison County) to co-write several selections from Wallers Border Music album. Gils writing talent and unique style has made him well-known from Mexico to Canada, with performances throughout the US, Canada, and Mexico. Experience true Americana music from a unique grass roots artist who has written first-hand, a lifetime worth of songs reflecting the cowboy way of life.
