Poetic lyrics floating in beautiful melodies and intertwining rhythms of piano and acoustic world instruments for melancholy pop-folk-rock. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Jennifer Rannells was born in San Francisco, California, raised in Lexington, Kentucky and began writing and performing music as soon as she could form a note. Classically trained on the piano from age five and inspired by the Elizabethan and Appalachian folk songs sung to her by her mother, she began forming what was to become her current style by age fourteen. Floating on haunting and beautiful melodies and within intertwining rhythms, her poetic lyrics paint landscapes of personal and charged emotions of her inner world, playful and strange stories of imaginary worlds, and the intangible spaces between. Based in San Francisco, Jennifer has performed in Kentucky, Los Angeles, San Diego, and London.
