Being the highlight of school plays and shows since age five, she would soon realize her intrinsic desire of becoming one of the best exponents of Latin American Pop representing her country overseas. Before leaving her native country, Mariadela co-lead a duo called Alma Gemela, which was well known for their original compositions and their very distinctive acoustic style. She would then submerge in the North American culture, embracing jazz, blues and folk elements, which would later reflect in her performances in different major cities of North Carolina, California, and Florida. In March 2007, Mariadela released her first single called En Silencio, which was launched in Macarena, Miami Beach. This EP includes songs such as: Tengo, En Silencio and Busca Tu Voz. In July 2007, this last song was the winner of the Song of the Year contest (SOTY), a popular American competition with renown jury artists such as Norah Jones, and Bon Jovi. Mariadela is constantly performing in different venues of South Florida, where she stands out as a melodic voice, as well as an innovative, and charismatic artist. Currently, she is getting ready the release of her new musical production Lineas 1000, recorded in Miami, FL, and Lima, Peru, under the musical direction of Latin Grammy nominee producer Francisco Murias Ocampo.
