Donnie Macdonald (Scotland) and James keigher (Ireland) blend their vocals and weave octave mandolin, mandocello,conceretina,guitar and bodhrans on this, their seventh recording, Culmore.It is in fine keeping with the Scottish and Irish tradition. 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Culmore is a CD presented in the best tradition of Scottish and Irish folk music. From the beautiful Gaelic poetry of Christina Macdonald to the economy of words by John Boyle O'Reilly, Men of Worth are true to their roots. This is Men of Worth's seventh recording I have admired Men of Worth for years and was finally able to book them for our Festival last May. They surpassed all of my best expectations with their, musicality, quick wit, and delightful stage presence. They were the finely tuned gem of the festival Anna Manildi Director, Juan de Fuca Festival of the Arts
