Songs Details: Want the truth? You've come to the right place! This is where Neal's musical stories come from, and he wants to share. He loves it when he finds things going on inside other people that are also happening inside his own self. Neal observes, negotiates, and lives with what goes on around him. He packages these experiences. And, oh yes, he wants to have fun. Neal's music evolves out of the generation of the 60s (with a dash of Broadway musicals from his earliest days). Mix James Taylor with Dylan, Tom Paxton, and Phil Ochs stir in some Judy Collins and Leonard Cohen, add a dash of Gene Kelly and Perry Como along with a touch of Raffi, and there you have Neal. Michael Jackson? Hip-Hop? Punk? Metallica? Uh...don't waste your time with Neal. As a relative newcomer to San Francisco, Neal finds a wonderful city that offers a wide range of creative gatherings where his music is becoming known. Featured in restaurants and lounges, senior day care centers, and, of course, volunteering in children's groups, his most important message is always: this is not about me it's about US! (uhh nevertheless, receiving money is also something he likes from time to time.) So, if you like stories about people in all walks (and runs, and leaps, and trips, and falls) of life parents, lovers, homeless, sailors, young, and old then Neal fills the bill.
