"The Kingston Trio on acid" -- John Hoglund, 2006 Back Stage Bistro Awards 20 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, EASY LISTENING: Cabaret Details: "I can think of no finer investment for your cabaret dollar.... Great vocals, great harmonies, great arrangements. STU HAMSTRA Cabaret Hotline Online Following another SRO tour of South America (Orlando mostly), the Pink Boys come home to New York, bringing with them a trunk load of CDs based on their 2006 Back Stage Bistro Award Winning evening of Hawaiian-inspired Hilarity. As John Hoglund wrote in Back Stage (and we quote): The Fabulous Pink Flamingos says it all! (He also described the boys as The Kingston Trio on acid but we digress.) So, dust off your coconuts, grab your tiki, and get ready to shake your hula hips! Leis for Everybody! "I'm going to suggest that nothing as potentially exciting in the three-men-singing category has come along since Gotham threatened to go national a few decades back.... They don't make a false move or sing a wrong note throughout the pleasantly daffy show." DAVID FINKLE Back Stage Bistro Bits Since making their New York debut in 2004s Last Call at the XMAS Lounge, The Fabulous Pink Flamingos have garnered unanimous praise for their shows, which blend nostalgia, humor, and incredible three-part harmony. In 2006 they were awarded the Back Stage Bistro Award for Outstanding Vocal Group, as well as being nominated for a Night Life Award. "The show is fizzy, fun and the first I've seen in a long, long time which didn't have too many ballads." CHARLES BLOOM Composer/Lyricist "One might easily conceive of them entertaining at some first class resort hotel not far from Wakiki Beach.... The personable young'uns...smoothly manage their close harmony with the precision of a male reincarnation of the Andrews Sisters, adding scripted gags with the campy quality of a '20s vaudeville act."
