Well!! here is another group from Birmingham. In the late eighties, the Dumpson family formed a group called "FAMILLEE". This group consisted of Dad, Mom, their three girls, Tiwana, Theresa, Mary, their three boys, Joshua, Matthew, and Melvin, Jr.. Dad began to train his boys, ages 6, 7, and 10, to play musical instruments. Joshua, age 6, was assigned the drums, Matthew, age 7, was assigned the bass guitar, and Melvin, Jr. was assigned the rhythm guitar. Dad who is and all around musician, is the lead guitar player. He taught his boy's how to read and play music. They practiced three to four hours a day, seven days a week. After about one year, Mom and the girls joined Dad and the boys and the rest is history. Arron Jordon joined the group as the keyboard player. They would travel the Southeast, and everywhere they went, people would ask them if they had any records for sale. The obvious answer was no. They decided they would record their first album in 1990. They didn't want to record songs by other groups, so Dad and Mom started writing songs for their first album.
