The SECRET is Product "Review" Websites Why are Product Review Websites so effective and produce such great results? The old adage that the best form of sales is "word of mouth" really is true. Also the adage "people telling other people about a good deal" is also true and very effective. The smartest affiliates know they can get further with someone of who is interested in a particular subject when they use the power of recommendation. Give Unbiased Recommendations: The worst thing you can do to your visitors is pressure them into buying a product or service. The more pressure you put on someone, the more their defenses go up and the less likely they are to buy from you. By giving unbiased product recommendations, you are letting the potential customer decide what works the best for his/her situation. This strategy lowers the visitors defenses and opens them up to what you have to offer on your site. Nobody really likes being 'sold' to, but would rather have a recommendation from friend or someone they know and trust. The next best thing is to have Product Review Website that does not appear to have an interest in the unbiased recommendation. Creating a Product Review Website from scratch is not easy and paying professionals to do it for you can get very expensive. You would need to: Find a hot niche market with hungry buyers Research the top selling affiliate products in that market Write a detailed, rich in keywords review on each product Research additional affiliate products that you can also advertise to your site visitors Design a professional looking website to place your reviews on I have the perfect solution for you...
