Her music genre is country/rock/pop. Fonda's unique passionate voice and great tone quality was inherited from her father, Rockabilly Hall Of Famer "Bobby Cash". Her first hit single "I Don't Need Your Love Kisses", written by her father Bobby Cash Wayne Cochran was released to radio in Dec. of 2004. Within one month of its release the song came in at #33 on the Top 40 Indie Country Charts. Her song "Supa Stah" which was co-written and performed by close friend Lisa Barreca, won the competition for the Proximity Effect compilation CD on Broadjam and has also won a spot on the Pevey Broadjam promotional compilation disc. Fonda's song "Get Your Partying Gear" made it into the blues and country/rock top 10 on Broadjam, and "Without You" made it into the country/rock top 10 on Broadjam as well. Her song "Then Maybe Someday" was chosen to be the theme song for the Foal Rescue Foundation. She currently has 5 songs that are getting radio play in the United States over seas. Fonda will be going to Nashville in November of 2005 to sign with Capitol Management Group. Keep a look out for her first music video to be released on CMT GAC.
