Bluesy, Southern Fried, Greasy Country, Poppin Rock that will leave you with a satisfied taste in your gut.. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: Grouchy Rooster is a bluesy, southern rockin, swamp stompin, bad ass chicken, with a cajun flavor of attitude. All songs have a true story and written from the heart. Vocalist, guitarist, and songwriter, Gary Jeffries has been around the block more than once. Gary has had videos on MTV with rock band Asphalt Ballet, his group won headbangers ball 7 times. He has released 3 cd's in the last 3 years with ALLIGATOR STEW, THE REGULATORS and COUPDEVILLE.. Grouchy Rooster's cd "Real and Raw" was recorded during various sessions at rehearsals, and any place a recorder could be hooked up, all 6 tracks. There was no intentions of making a cd until several years later, when Beanpole (Pappy) drums, started listening to the old tapes. Pappy convinced Gary that they should release the music. Some of these songs were only played one time, such as Strange Gypsy Lady, and Poor Man's Prayer (Which were captured on the Spot, But Listen to how Daunting these Tracks are. Some of the songs were recorded by other artist's, and have been released on cd's. "Far Beneath The Rubble" was written one day after the Northridge California earthquake. Annie I See Your Eyes was written about Gary's niece, whom he was very close to. She was taken in an automobile accident. This cd is not a slick production (Definetly with exceptions), However if you want to hear Great Songs, Great Lyrics, with genuine performances, Grouchy Rooster's Real Raw is an experience you won't want to miss. {Dey b sum chickn' fight'n ovr dis}
