An instrumental musical oasis of Contemporary Jazz melodies, sizzling Latin dance rhythms, intimate classical piano/cello duets. "...filled with optimism, poetry, and tenderness... I'm sure it will find a place in your heart." Suzanne Ciani 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, NEW AGE: New Age Details: "At home with classical and jazz elements as well as pop and New Age stylings, John Polito composes music for the heart rather than the head. Lyrically expressive and emotionally available, the music on Polito's debut Crossing the Line is meant to be felt as much as heard. Polito plays piano and keyboards with enthusiastic passion, and he is as comfortable with up-tempo numbers such as 'Aurora Alegre' as with the introspective solo piano of 'Home.' A great horn section also graces 'Aurora Alegre,' creating a sizzling Latin dance piece. Three tracks - 'Euphoria,' 'Walk in the Clouds,' and 'Safe Passage' - feature a gorgeous 12-piece string section. Charlie Bisharat lends his evocative violin work to 'In Motion.' Bass, guitars, cello, and percussion complete the instrumental lineup. For some of the freshest contemporary instrumental music of 2001, try Crossing the Line." New Age Retailer "one of the most engaging and innovative contemporary jazz collectionsa classic of its kind in scope and delivery one of the finest CD releases to come along in the year 2001Every musician performs flawless, perfect solo workFive stars all the way. A contemporary jazz classic!" Lee Prosser, "Jazz at a Glance" (jazzreview.com) "John Polito's composing and playing ranges are amazingpromises to be an important emerging artist The music is immediately accessible, but complex enough to keep unfolding as you get deeper into the musicHighly recommended!"
