Kingstreet has been selected for the prestigious Decent Exposure '04 Compilation CD and is pleased that their freshman full length album, Along Came Lizzy spent its first seven weeks on CDBaby's top sellers list next to singer/songwriter Gary Jules, which attracted the interest of their now sponsor Jagermeister. Kingstreet's buzz has spread well beyond the walls of San Francisco, having now shared bills with artists Gavin DeGraw, 3 Doors Down, Jessica Simpson, Nickelback, Puddle Of Mudd, Ryan Cabrera, Buckethead (Guns Roses), Merl Saunders (Grateful Dead), Bob Guiney (The Bachelor), and many more.

Last year they were selected by Cornerbandas one of the worlds 30 Best Bands and had over 100,000 downloads of their old music since. Kingstreet was also selected to headline for the bay area's largest band/industry showcases Nadine's Wild Weekend (sponsored by Nadine Condon), the DIY Convention SF, and has played some of the countries largest stages like the The Woodlands Amphitheatre (Houston) and Shoreline Amphitheatre (San Francisco), as well as the west coast's hottest clubs like The Independent, The Viper Room, Slim's, Sweetwater and Great American Music Hall. Due to their continued success, they have worked with hit producers like Chris Manning (Metallica, Guster, Santana, etc.), Joel Jaffe (Verve, Soundgarden, Aretha Franklin, etc.) and most recently up and comer Ben Yonas. Kingstreet released their full length freshman album Along Came Lizzy to packed houses in Los Angeles, New York, and San Francisco, garnering critical and fan praise alike - Smotherraves "Great band that will pave over the entire scene with their knack for writing a great alt-pop song"
