Upbeat super-happy British indie-pop. Big guitars, big harmonies and painfully catchy songs. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: Britpop Show all album songs: This Year's Evel Knievel Songs Details: Loopy are a UK five piece band who formed in Oxford and gigged heavily for a few years before moving to Hampshire. Have supported the likes of 'Catatonia', 'Space', Wreckless Eric and 'Jon Otway'. Loopy unashamedly play indie-pop and are usually likened to The Housemartins, Monkees, Aztec Camera, Fountains of Wayne etc ...but bigger guitars and harmonies. Have released three albums and a few singles. Live, they play incredibly energetic gigs with pretty much everyone in a big sweaty heap by the end of the show! Some reviews Outstanding ... loads of energy Best track I've heard since coming here Reminded me of The Undertones - BBC SouthernCounties Radio cram packed with a blend of upbeat/feel-good indie guitar pop - BBC Southampton Music If the Housemartins did a "Beatles Project" with backing vocals on tap from the Hollies and music supplied by The Monkees, it would be Loopy. - The Mag
