Details: Music is the key to my heart, thats how Monique Spence describes her love and passion for music. Monique is the real deal. Raised in Malvern - an area considered by many to be one of the toughest neighborhoods in Toronto - this up and coming Canadian songstress has experienced more than her share of ups and downs. Instead of allowing her situation to hold her back, she uses it to drive and feed her desire to succeed in the music industry. Citing artists like Kelly Price, Mary J Blige and Mariah Carey as inspirations, Monique credits her talent to her fathers musical and mothers poetic backgrounds. A triple threat, Monique writes, produces and performs her own music. Serious and dedicated, Monique spent several years honoring her skills. Aspiring from an early age to make music her life, she attended the New Conservatory of Music at the age of 13 where she was awarded 2 gold medals. As an adult she graduated from the Trebas Institute where she majored in recorded music and production. Soon after graduation Monique started her own production company MoSpence Productions. "In the Canadian music industry, you have to be really dedicated to doing it for yourself," says Monique, whos musical portfolio boast over 200 original songs written and produced by her. There are a lot of trials and tribulations you have to go through to get what you want especially when you feel like it belongs to you After hearing one of her songs on heavy rotation on DJ Starting from Scratches well known Flow 93.5 traffic Mix show, she knew she had to seize the opportunity and jump into action. Monique is ready to take her sound to the people. Blending elements of rock, R&B and Gospel, Moniques sound has been described as melodic with an edge topped with a tantalizing touch of soulful grit. Monique attacks the mic with the confidence and attitude of a seasoned diva. She has backed-up local Canadian reggae artists including Belinda Brady, Sonia Collymore, King U Jah, and international reggae artist Lenn Hammond to name a few. Performing in many local clubs and lounges throughout Ontario, Monique has gained a loyal fan base. Her online presence on MySpace cant be missed, since the launch of her page in 2006 her music has been played over 4 million times! Always remembering where she came from and the hurdles shes overcome, Monique is passionate about providing inspiration to young girls, and youth in general. The lyrics of many her songs speak of empowerment and self-respect and that hope and faith, and holding on to a dream can carry anyone far. Monique is a driven Canadian artist with sass, and a distinctive style that easily markets her as a complete package. Monique Spence is a rising star who will not stop until she makes her mark on the North American music industry and of course, worldwide!
