Chicago's RCF is led by sound artist R-Rock and subaquatic rhyme specialist Kaptain Nemo. On "20,000" they fuse a classic story together with beats, noise and rhymes, and along the way invite guest players such as free jazz alto sax legend Wally Shoup, no wave clarinet from Michael Thomas Jackson, and dope rhymes from Jonny Fear. This musical journey brings together diverse styles in a radical new mix, from hip-hop to punk rock, all with the patented RCF wall of noise aesthetic.
